WELCOME AND PRAYERS

HYMN

Morning has broken
like the first morning;
blackbird has spoken
like the first bird.
Praise for the singing!
Praise for the morning!'
Praise for them, springing fresh from the Word!

Sweet the rain's new fall,
sunlit from heaven,
like the first dew-fall
on the first grass.
Praise for the sweetness
of the wet garden,
sprung in completeness
where his feet pass.

Mine is the sunlight!
Mine is the morning
born of the one light
Eden saw play!
Praise with elation,
praises ev'ry morning,
God's re-creation
of the new day!

POEM
Passing On by Jeremy Nightingale

Shed no tears of sorrow for me today, only tears of joy.
As my body leaves you, my spirit starts a journey to my new home.
There, I shall meet my friends and family. I can hardly wait to hear their news.
I want to smile, laugh, read and hear music
so I can dance in a beautiful new dress.
Do not be afraid for me; only share my excitement.
Remember I shall always be close to you,
and one day we shall all meet and share our stories.

PRAYERS

HYMN

I danced in the morning
when the world was begun,
and I danced in the moon
and the stars and the sun,
and I came down from heaven
and I danced on the earth
at Bethlehem I had my birth:

Chorus: Dance, then, wherever you may be;
I am the Lord of the Dance said he,
and I'll lead you all,
wherever you may be,
and I'll lead you all
in the dance, said he.

I danced for the scribe
and the pharisee,
but they would not dance
and they wouldn't follow me;
I danced for the fishermen
for James and John;
they came with me
and the dance went on. (Chorus)

I danced on the Sabbath
and I cured the lame:
the holy people
said it was a shame.
They whipped and they stripped
and they hung me high,
and they left me there
on a cross to die: (Chorus)

I danced on a Friday
when the sky turned black
it's hard to dance
with the devil on your back.
They buried my body
and they thought I'd gone;
but I am the dance
and I still go on: (Chorus)

They cut me down
and I leapt up high;
I am the life
that'll never, never die;
I'll live on in you
if you'll live in me:
I am the Lord
Of the Dance said he: (Chorus)
